Glass Australia 2017

AGGA National Conference

About AGGA 2017 National Conference

The AGGA 2017 conference is expected to attract approximately 200 attendees from the Australian glass and glazing industry . The conference provides stakeholders and suppliers a valuable opportunity to interact with their peers in an interactive and informative environment.

The AGGA is committed to engaging with delegates through an informative program of speakers, as well as facilitating networking and business opportunities through an interactive trade exhibition and a dynamic program of social events.

The AGGA membership is comprised of glass manufacturers, glass processors, glass and window installers / repairers (glaziers), and machinery, equipment and software suppliers.

The majority of attendees are from Australia but the conference also attracts around 10% of its attendees from overseas. Over 95% of all delegates are males aged 35 years and over. Around 15% of delegates will also attend the conference with their spouse / partner.

Occupations of the delegates include glaziers, middle, senior and executive management, company directors / owners, agents for machinery and equipment suppliers, sales and marketing managers and business development managers.

The following pages outline the varying sponsorship opportunities available at GA17. We look forward to your participation in this premier industry event and welcoming you to Adelaide.

Please contact our team on 03 8669 0170 if you have any questions about GA17 or you can email jane@agga.asn.au for further information.
